

FAU Summer Study Abroad Program

Florence, Italy

June 11 – July 22, 2006

Living Accommodations: Students will live for six weeks in a shared, furnished apartment. The shared apartments will have air conditioning, internet access, laundry facilities, and kitchen. There will be a doorman present from 8:00 p.m. to 4:00 a.m. There will also be an optional lunch plan available to students for an additional charge when they arrive in Florence.

Academic Program:

ITA 1120 Beg. Italian Language & Culture I
ITA 1121 Beg. Italian Language & Culture II
ITA 2203 Int. Italian Language & Culture I
ITA 2204 Int. Italian Language & Culture II
ITA 3400 Adv. Italian Language & Culture I
ITA 3401 Adv. Italian Language & Culture II

ARH 4930 Art History in Florence
LIT 4930 Saints and Sinners in Medieval and Renaissance Italy

Cost of Program: $3,600.00

Included in Program Fee: 6-8 in-state undergraduate tuition, housing, two day-long excursions (1. Siena; 2. Tuscan country-side: Lunch included on excursions), six group dinners, pre-departure orientation, International Student ID Card, basic insurance, on-site support staff, and on-site orientation.

Not Included: Airfare, most meals, books, spending money.

For More Information, Contact:

Dr. Myriam Swennen Ruthenberg, GCS 212D, 561-297-2682 / ruthenbe@fau.edu
Tania Tucker-Kraus, SU 106, 561-297-3227 / trtucker@fau.edu
Emanuele Pettener, GCS 212F, 561-297-3623 / epettene@fau.edu

A limited number of grants are available (deadline April 15)
Florida Atlantic University reserves the right to make changes with or without notice